About Strange Tales

This production is the first British stage adaptation of a selection of Strange Tales from a Chinese Studio, a collection of around 500 classical Chinese stories by Pu Songling, first published in the mid-18th century. The tales comment on and warn of many aspects of and issues in their contemporary society, which are still highly relevant today, and many feature supernatural beings such as ghosts, demons and fox spirits. Since their publication they have become an iconic work in East Asian countries and have been adapted for film and television.

A young scholar falls in love with a ghostly woman and has to fight a demon to save them both and bring her back to life.

TALKING PUPILS

A gentleman with a questionable reputation receives a punishment from the Gods when his pupils leave his eyes to see what he can no longer see.

PAINTED SKIN

A hideous fiend takes on a disguise to kill humans. One man whose heart has been ripped out is saved by his wife's sacrifice.

THE BIG SNEEZE

A man sneezes out three creatures who eat each other and end up permanently attached to him.

A woman, Sara, becomes involved in a love triangle with a ghost and a fox spirit which makes her gravely ill and her supernatural lovers must work together to save her life.

THE LITTLE MANDARIN

A procession of miniscule mandarins presents a gift to a surprised man.

THE DAOIST PRIEST OF MOUNT LAO

A man from Paisley journeys to a monastery to learn the skills of the immortals. He witnesses the moon goddess descend from the moon and learns to walk through walls. However when he returns home and tries to show off to his wife, he ends up humiliated.

MAGICAL ARTS

A corrupt fortune teller warns Jade of impending danger. Jade then has to battle three deadly creatures and ends up exposing the criminal fortune teller.

Come to these tales properly and they will make you strong and brave

When Pauline was looking for a new project, a ghost story combining folk tales, martial arts and the supernatural, a friend recommended a collection of Chinese tales, but couldn't remember the name of the book. She found Strange Tales from a Chinese Studio by Pu Songling. Turned out, that wasn't the book he meant. So in a way, these tales found her.

She was immediately attracted to their theatricality and bizarreness and how modern they felt, despite being written nearly 400 years ago. They really were unlike anything she'd read before.

Pauline and Ben first worked together twenty years ago on the Grid Iron show, Monumental and wanted to collaborate again after far too long. They set to work choosing which tales to include. That was not an easy task as there were almost 500 to choose from! Finally, they settled on 8, a lucky number in Chinese culture. Ben was particularly attracted by the thin membrane between life and death in the tales, that the dead can have relationships and even children with the living, and the tales' strong concern with the guiding spirits of the ancestors. This philosophy is moving, hopeful, and powerfully unlike the way we generally treat life and death in Scotland.

Bright Side Studios had created work with the late choreographer Janice Claxton and they imagined how exciting it would be to mix that technology with martial arts and so Cristina and Susanna joined the project. One by one other partners became involved including The Confucius Institute for Scotland and the Royal Shakespeare Company who, through their Chinese Classics Translation Project, provided new translations by Ewan Macdonald. Puppet Animation Scotland supported us to work with puppetry and illusion which brought Fergus Dunnet to the team. To bring the whole design world of the tales to life the mighty Karen Tennent came on board, joined by lighting designer James Johnson and composer Ruth Chan. And of course, wrapping their support all around us are our co-producers, the Traverse Theatre.

It has been a long, often surprising journey and finally, three years after first reading these tales, the team are thrilled to share tonight these beautiful, bizarre and very - Strange Tales.

当你真正“读懂”这些故事

它们就会让你变得坚强而勇敢

Pauline当时正在为一个新项目寻找素材，她想要一个集民间传说、武术和超自然力于一体的故事。一位朋友向她推荐了一本中国故事集，但却忘了书名。她于是找到了蒲松龄的《聊斋志异》，然而，这并不是朋友指的那本书。因此，从某种意义上说，是聊斋故事找到了她。

她立刻被这些故事的戏剧性、荒诞怪异，及其十足的现代感所吸引，尽管它们写于约400年前。它们真的给她带来了前所未有的阅读体验。

二十年前，Pauline和Ben首次合作推出了Grid Iron剧Monumental。很久以后，他们想再次合作，于是开始筛选故事。这可不是一个轻松的任务，因为要从近500个故事中来选！最后，他们选了8个故事（在中国文化中，“8”是个吉利的数字）。Ben尤其被那些故事中的“生死咫尺”之感所吸引——已故之人可以和在世的人谈情说爱乃至结婚生子，并且这些故事强烈关注来自先辈的启示。这一哲学令人动容，充满希望和力量，它和我们苏格兰人通常的生死观截然不同。

Bright Side工作室与已故的编舞Janice Claxton合作，他们设想将技术与武术相结合将产生令人兴奋的效果。Cristina和Susanna也加入了这个项目。随后，一个接一个的伙伴参与其中，包括苏格兰孔子学院和皇家莎士比亚剧团（RSC）。该剧团为此推出了中国经典翻译项目，由Ewan Macdonald创作新译本。苏格兰木偶动画公司（Puppet Animation Scotland）帮助我们制作木偶戏和幻想场景，并让Fergus Dunnet加入团队进行制作。为了将设计的整个故事世界栩栩如生地再现眼前，能力过人的Karen Tennent加入团队，随之而来的还有灯光设计师James Johnson和作曲人Ruth Chan。当然，将他们的支持汇聚起来的是我们的联合制作方Traverse剧院。

我们经历了一段漫长且意外不断的历程。最终，在邂逅这些故事的三年后，今晚，我们的团队很兴奋能在此分享这些美丽、荒诞、怪异的《聊斋志异》。

"Grid Iron is not just a Scottish national treasure but one of the companies that has shaped British theatre over the last 20 years" The Guardian

Grid Iron is an Edinburgh based new writing theatre company which specialises in creating site-specific and location theatre although they also produce work for the stage. In their 24 years, they have received 31 awards and a further 20 nominations covering all aspects of their work from acting, writing and use of music to stage management, design and technical expertise.

Their adventures have taken them to extraordinary places; from the slopes of Edinburgh Zoo to a massive oil-rig manufacturing shed in Dundee, a boat-builders island in a Norwegian fjord, to the former General Security building in Beirut, a working cancer hospital in Jordan, the old City Morgue in Cork, landside and airside at Edinburgh Airport and parks, housing estates, playgrounds and bars (for performances as well as recreation!) all over Scotland and Britain.

We have made co-productions with many partners including National Theatre of Scotland, Traverse Theatre, Dundee Rep Theatre, Almeida Theatre London, Lung Ha Theatre Company, Stellar Quines and Edinburgh International Book Festival and we have delivered two European Capital of Culture commissions (Cork 2005 and Stavanger 2008). We have performed 14 times at the Edinburgh Festival Fringe and twice at Edinburgh International Festival. We've also been part of Edinburgh International Science Festival, Imagine and Edinburgh International Book Festival, our co-production with whom was supported by the Scottish Government's Edinburgh Festivals Expo Fund and was also part of Culture 2014, Glasgow's cultural celebration of the Commonwealth Games.

As Scotland's new writing theatre, the Traverse Theatre is a dynamic centre for performance, experience and discovery, often referred to as Edinburgh's 'beating heart of the Fringe' in August. Enabling people across society to access and engage with theatre is our fundamental mission.

Our year-round programme bursts with new stories and live performances that challenge, inform and entertain. We empower artists and audiences to make sense of the world today, providing a safe space to question, learn, empathise and – crucially – encounter different people and experiences. Conversation and the coming together of groups are central to a democratic society, and we champion equal expression and understanding.

We commission, produce and programme for existing and future audiences to offer new and exciting experiences for everyone, and our partnerships with other theatre companies and festivals enable us to present a wide range of innovative performances.

The Traverse would not exist without our over-arching passion for talent development and embracing the unexplored. We work with the newest and rawest talent – with an emphasis on the Scottish-based – nurturing it to become the art, artists and performances that can be seen on our stages through a variety of creative learning and literary programmes.

The timely, powerful stories that start life on our stages have global impact, resulting in dozens of tours, productions and translations. We are critically acclaimed and recognised the world over for our originality and artistic risk, which we hope will create some of the most talked-about plays, productions, directors, writers and actors for years to come.

Chinese Classics Translations Project

Through the project, the RSC is working with writers, translators, academics and theatre organisations in the UK and China as part of a cultural exchange to share classical Chinese stories written in English for today's audiences.

We are interested in stories written or performed before and during Shakespeare's lifetime. These stories are famous in China, but are not as well known in Western theatre. The aim of the project is to increase the knowledge and availability of these works for theatre-makers and today's audiences, celebrating the wealth of stories told in China over the centuries, which may well have influenced Shakespeare or his contemporaries. We're exploring and translating classical Chinese plays that were written or performed before and during the 16th and 17th centuries. These might be:

- Plays written during Shakespeare's lifetime (1564-1616)
- Plays written during the Ming dynasty, even if after Shakespeare's life
- Plays written before Shakespeare's lifetime - perhaps in the Yuan, Song or Tang Dynasty, but still available, performed or adapted in Shakespeare's lifetime
- Plays written later which show a strong connection to Shakespearean plots, or his era.

We have researched more than 45 classical Chinese titles nominated by academics, theatremakers, playwrights and translators across the world.

Working with translators and academics, we are creating detailed reports summarising the plot and context of a number of these titles, alongside up to ten full-length new translations in English. We look at a range of styles and translation practices for the stage and work closely with translators of the original classical texts.

The Chinese Classics Translation Project runs until 2023, when we will create a digital archive of information about these stories. We hope to publish a collection of translations and make some translations available for development by other theatre companies.

皇家莎士比亚剧团中国经典戏剧翻译项目。

皇家莎士比亚剧团（RSC）正与中英两国的作者、译者、学者和剧团组织合作推进这一翻译项目。此项目以英文为载体，为当今观众呈现中国传统故事，以深化中英文化交流。

我们的翻译项目聚焦与莎士比亚同时期及其之前创作或表演的民间故事。这些故事在中国流传甚广，但在西方戏剧界却鲜为人知。我们希望借此机会增加西方戏剧工作者和当今观众对中国传统故事的认知和接触，展现数百年来中国故事的丰富多彩。这些故事或许曾影响过莎翁及其同时代作家。项目的选材及翻译对象为十六至十七世纪创作或搬演的中国传统戏剧作品，包括：

莎士比亚时期（1564 - 1616）创作的中国剧作

莎士比亚生平之外的明代剧作

莎士比亚出生之前（如唐、宋、元代）的中国剧作（但曾于莎士比亚时期得以流传、上演或改编）

创作于莎士比亚时期之后，但与莎剧剧情或意象脉脉相通的中国剧作。

项目组迄今为止收集并整理了由世界各地学者、戏剧制作人、剧作家及译者推荐的共计45条相关剧目。

当前，我们正携手各位译者及相关学者，为初选剧目编写详尽报告（含剧情梗概及背景），并计划完成约十部剧作的英文新译（全译本）。我们结合各种舞台风格及翻译实践，并与原作译者密切合作。

中国经典戏剧翻译项目计划开展至2023年。届时，我们将为项目成果建立电子数据库。此外，我们亦计划出版一套译本系列，并将部分译本分享给其他剧团使用。
